ANYTHING AWAY

Chorus
any thing any thing that the Singers all
f Singers in the
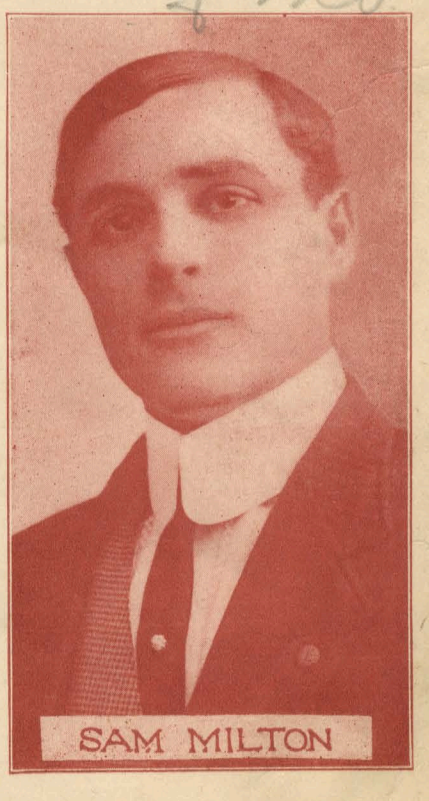
P
parlor and the stage sing Cloff tuffand
us are all the rage But any

Words & Music by
C. E. Brandon

Mary Short
Newburg Mo
June 28-13

FEATURED BY



Published by
BRANDON MUSIC CO.
For
S. S. KRESGE
5 and 10 CENT SYNDICATE

Sweetheart I am Longing.

Words and Music
by R. J. FOX.

REFRAIN. Espressivo.

Long-ing for you in the Twi- - - light As the long hours come and
p—f
go, Long-ing to see your dear face now, And hear your sweet
voice soft and low Oft-times I dream you are near me,
These hap-py dreams ne'er come true Would that you were here to cheer rit.
rit.
rit.
me Sweet-heart I am long-ing for you.
1
2
you.
rit.
f

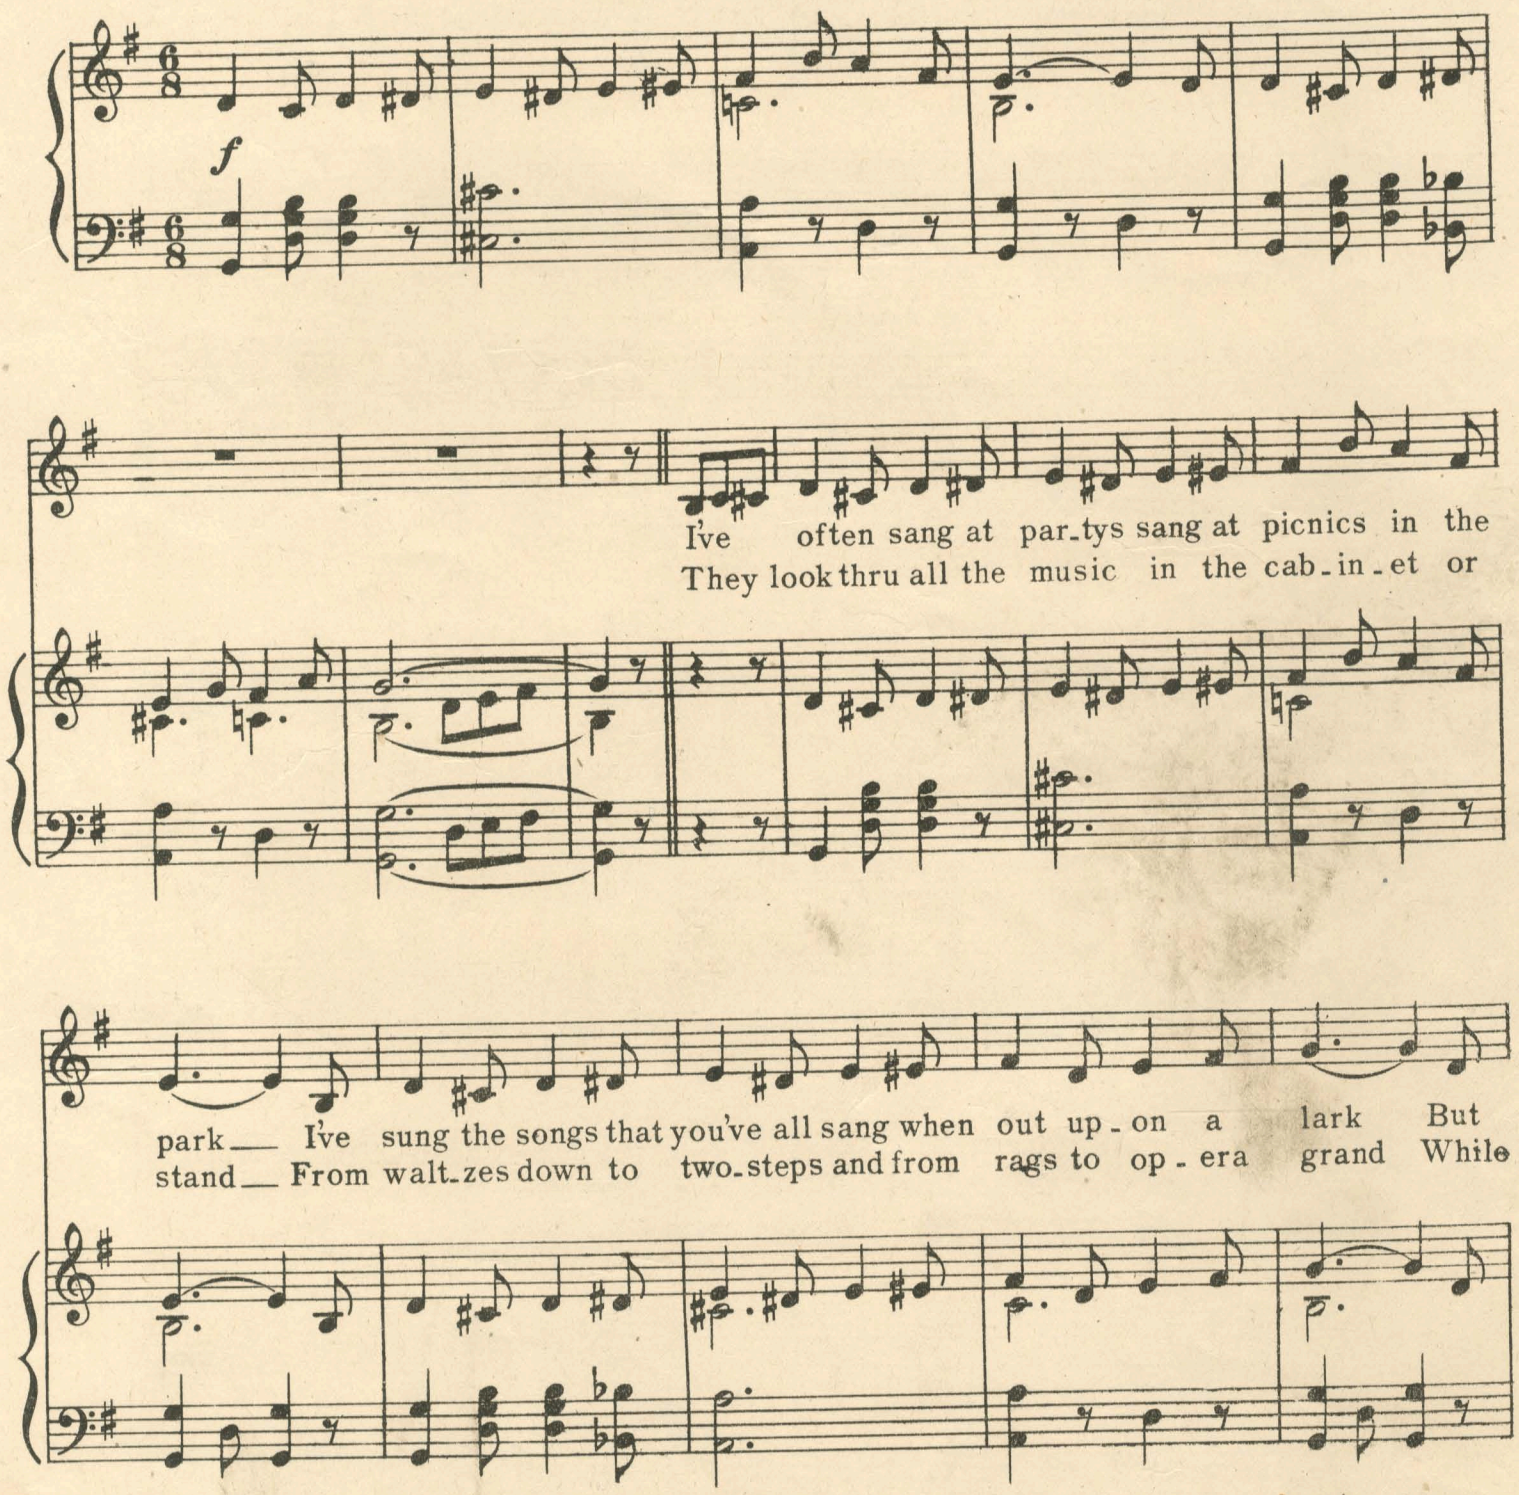
Copyright 1912 by Jos. F. Schlesinger Music Co.

For sale wherever music is sold

JOS. F. SCHLESINGER MUSIC CO.
3630 Shenandoah Ave. St. Louis Mo.

Sing Anything

Words and Music by C. E. BRANDON.
Writer of Original Ostend Song
Educator Rag, Violets and you,
I ain't Got Nobody, I was a L. Boy.



f
I've often sang at par-tys sang at picnics in the
They look thru all the music in the cab-in-et or park— I've sung the songs that you've all sang when out up-on a lark But stand— From walt-zes down to two-steps and from rags to op-era grand While Copyright 1912 by C. E. Brandon.

ev'- ry time I'm asked to sing I ask them what they'll have____
I stand wait - ing pa - tient - ly to hear what I'm to sing____ Its

Shall I sing a rag - time song or sing you some thing sad____ Sing aw - ful - ly dis - cou - rag - ing to hear there voi - ces ring____ Sing

rit.

CHORUS.

an - y - thing an - y - thing thats the song that

f

we all want to hear____ We've heard a lot of sing - ers in the

p

par-lor and the stage Sing lots of different songs that they told us were all the rage But an-y-thing an - y-thing we've been asking for since songs be-gan If you want to make a hit Well the

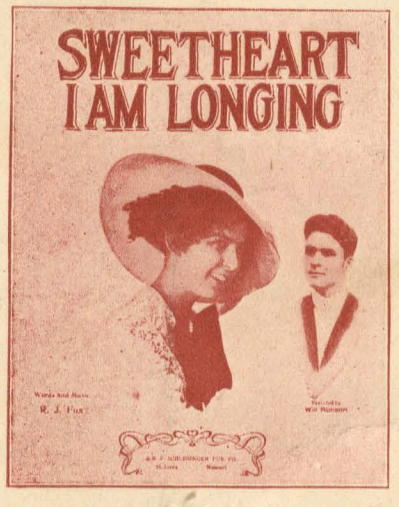
si-tu-a-tion fit sing an - - - y - thing



TRY THIS ON YOUR PIANO.

Sweetheart I am Longing.

Words and Music
by R. J. FOX

REFRAIN Expressivo.

Long-ing for you in the Twi- light As the long hours come and
p-f
go Long-ing to see your dear face now, And hear your sweet
voice soft and low Oft-times I dream you are near me
rit.
Those hap-py dreams ne'er come true Would that you were here to cheer
rit.
rit.
1
2
me Sweet-heart I am long-ing for you
you
rit

Copyright 1912 by Jos. F Schlesinger Music Co